

We live in a rural area with very little choice for radio stations. We listen to KLOVE for all of our musical enjoyment. It is the only radio station with uplifting music in our area. Please consider the impact of LPFM on rural communities that mostly receive programming from FM translators.